CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder shall be the purchaser, subject to the reservation that the Auctioneers shall have the right of regulating the amounts of the biddings ; of rejecting any bid ; of determining in their absolute discretion all disputes regarding the biddings, or any other matter arising under these Conditions ; and also of bidding for, withdrawing, consolidating, dividing or altering the order of any lots.

2.—The lots will be sold with all faults and errors of description and shall, immediately on the fall of the hammer be at the sole risk and expense of the respective purchasers who shall, when required, give in their names and places of business or abode, and pay down in cash a deposit of 25 per cent. of the purchase money, or such further sum as the Auctioneers may demand ; and any sum so paid shall be applicable towards payment for all or any of the lots bought by such purchaser.

The Auctioneers will not recognise the transfer of any lot from one purchaser to another, nor make any alteration in the Sale Book in respect thereof.

3.—A Purchaser shall not have the right to avail himself of any sett-off or other plea for non-payment of his purchase money, against the Auctioneers, or their principals, but he shall be liable for any unpaid purchase money whether the lots bought have been removed or not.

4.—The Auctioneers will not be responsible for any loss occasioned by fire, accident, or otherwise.

5.—The buyers shall remove their respective lots at their own expense on or before the 19th October, 1906, and the purchase money shall be due and payable on the day of Sale, and must be paid on demand before delivery of the lots, to the Auctioneers or the person appointed by him to receive the same.

Should any of the lots be not cleared within the time above specified the purchaser shall be liable to the Auctioneers for any cost of cartage, storage or other expense occasioned by such default, and interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum shall be due and recoverable upon all accounts from the day of Sale until the time of the settlement thereof.

Any damage done to the premises, or to any other property by the purchaser or his employees while removing his lots, or otherwise, shall be made good by the said purchaser to the satisfaction of the Auctioneers.

6.—If any purchaser neglect or refuse to comply with the above conditions, or any of them, his deposit money (if any) shall be forfeited, and the lots uncleared may, at the option of the Auctioneers, be re-sold without notice, by public auction or private contract, and any loss occasioned by such re-sale, together with all expenses attendant thereon, or arising under these conditions, shall be paid by the defaulter at this Sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages.

This Condition, however, is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneers to enforce the contract made at this Sale if they think fit, and the entry of the clerk in the Sale book, verified by the Auctioneers shall be deemed full and sufficient evidence of such contract, and binding alike upon Vendor and Purchaser.
